The Angelican 1962

VOLUME XVIII

Published by the Class of 1962
OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS ACADEMY
Conducted by the Felician Sisters
Enfield, Connecticut

Foreword

The Master surveys His crop and is pleased. The living wheat ripens with the warm rays of His sunlight. The stalks are strong with precious nutrients of love, truth, dignity, honor—accumulations of four years of tender care, guidance and example.

We, the Senior Class of 1962, prepare for our graduation-harvest. Cherished friends will be lost with time, and pleasant memories will soon fade. But truth, however, remains ours, and with this realization, life will be meaningful, and our Eternal Commencement will be achieved. Thus, after we leave the academy we love so well, to enter into valiant womanhood, the anxieties of life will become heavier but the seeds will yield their fruit at the Last Harvest for

"We drank in all the whole earth's fruitfulness
To make of it the fragrance of our souls
That shall outlive death . . ."

This our 1962 Angelican is our expression of the cherished traditions and principles which have given warmth and maturity to us as we groped for meaning and eventually grasped life.

Truly, the ground has been fertile, the rain sweet. Now the golden crop stands high.

Give us, Thy worthy children,
The blessings of wisdom and speech,
And the hands and hearts of healing,
And the lips and tongues that teach.
—Dr. Thomas Dooley

Dedication

We are living in a phenomenal age. Its vitality has conquered innumerable geographical, intellectual, cultural, and spiritual barriers, which had once plagued mankind. This conquest has, in no small way, poured forth from the greatest binding power in the world, the MYSTICAL BODY OF CHRIST. Out of its ranks have stepped countless self-sacrificing and dedicated young Americans who have sowed bountiful crops of love in the hearts of mankind throughout the world. Feeding on the Eucharist, the GOLDEN HARVEST of Divine Love, these lay apostles have implanted its seeds of life within the hearts of their less fortunate brothers, and, as a result, have reaped a harvest of souls for the MASTER of the HARVEST.

These apostles are the hands of Christ sowing charitable acts in neglected and abandoned areas. They are the voice of Christ beckoning and instructing the ignorant. They are the heart of Christ gushing forth with unparalleled zeal and love. They are the spirit of Christ enriched with the ways of the Son of God and His sacred humanity.

To these the gallant men and women of our beloved country, we dedicate the 1962 Angelican.

Theirs has been a sublime mission; ours, too, is a sublime one, for in the inspirational words that have guided the life of Dr. Thomas Dooley

"The woods are lovely, dark, and deep;
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep."

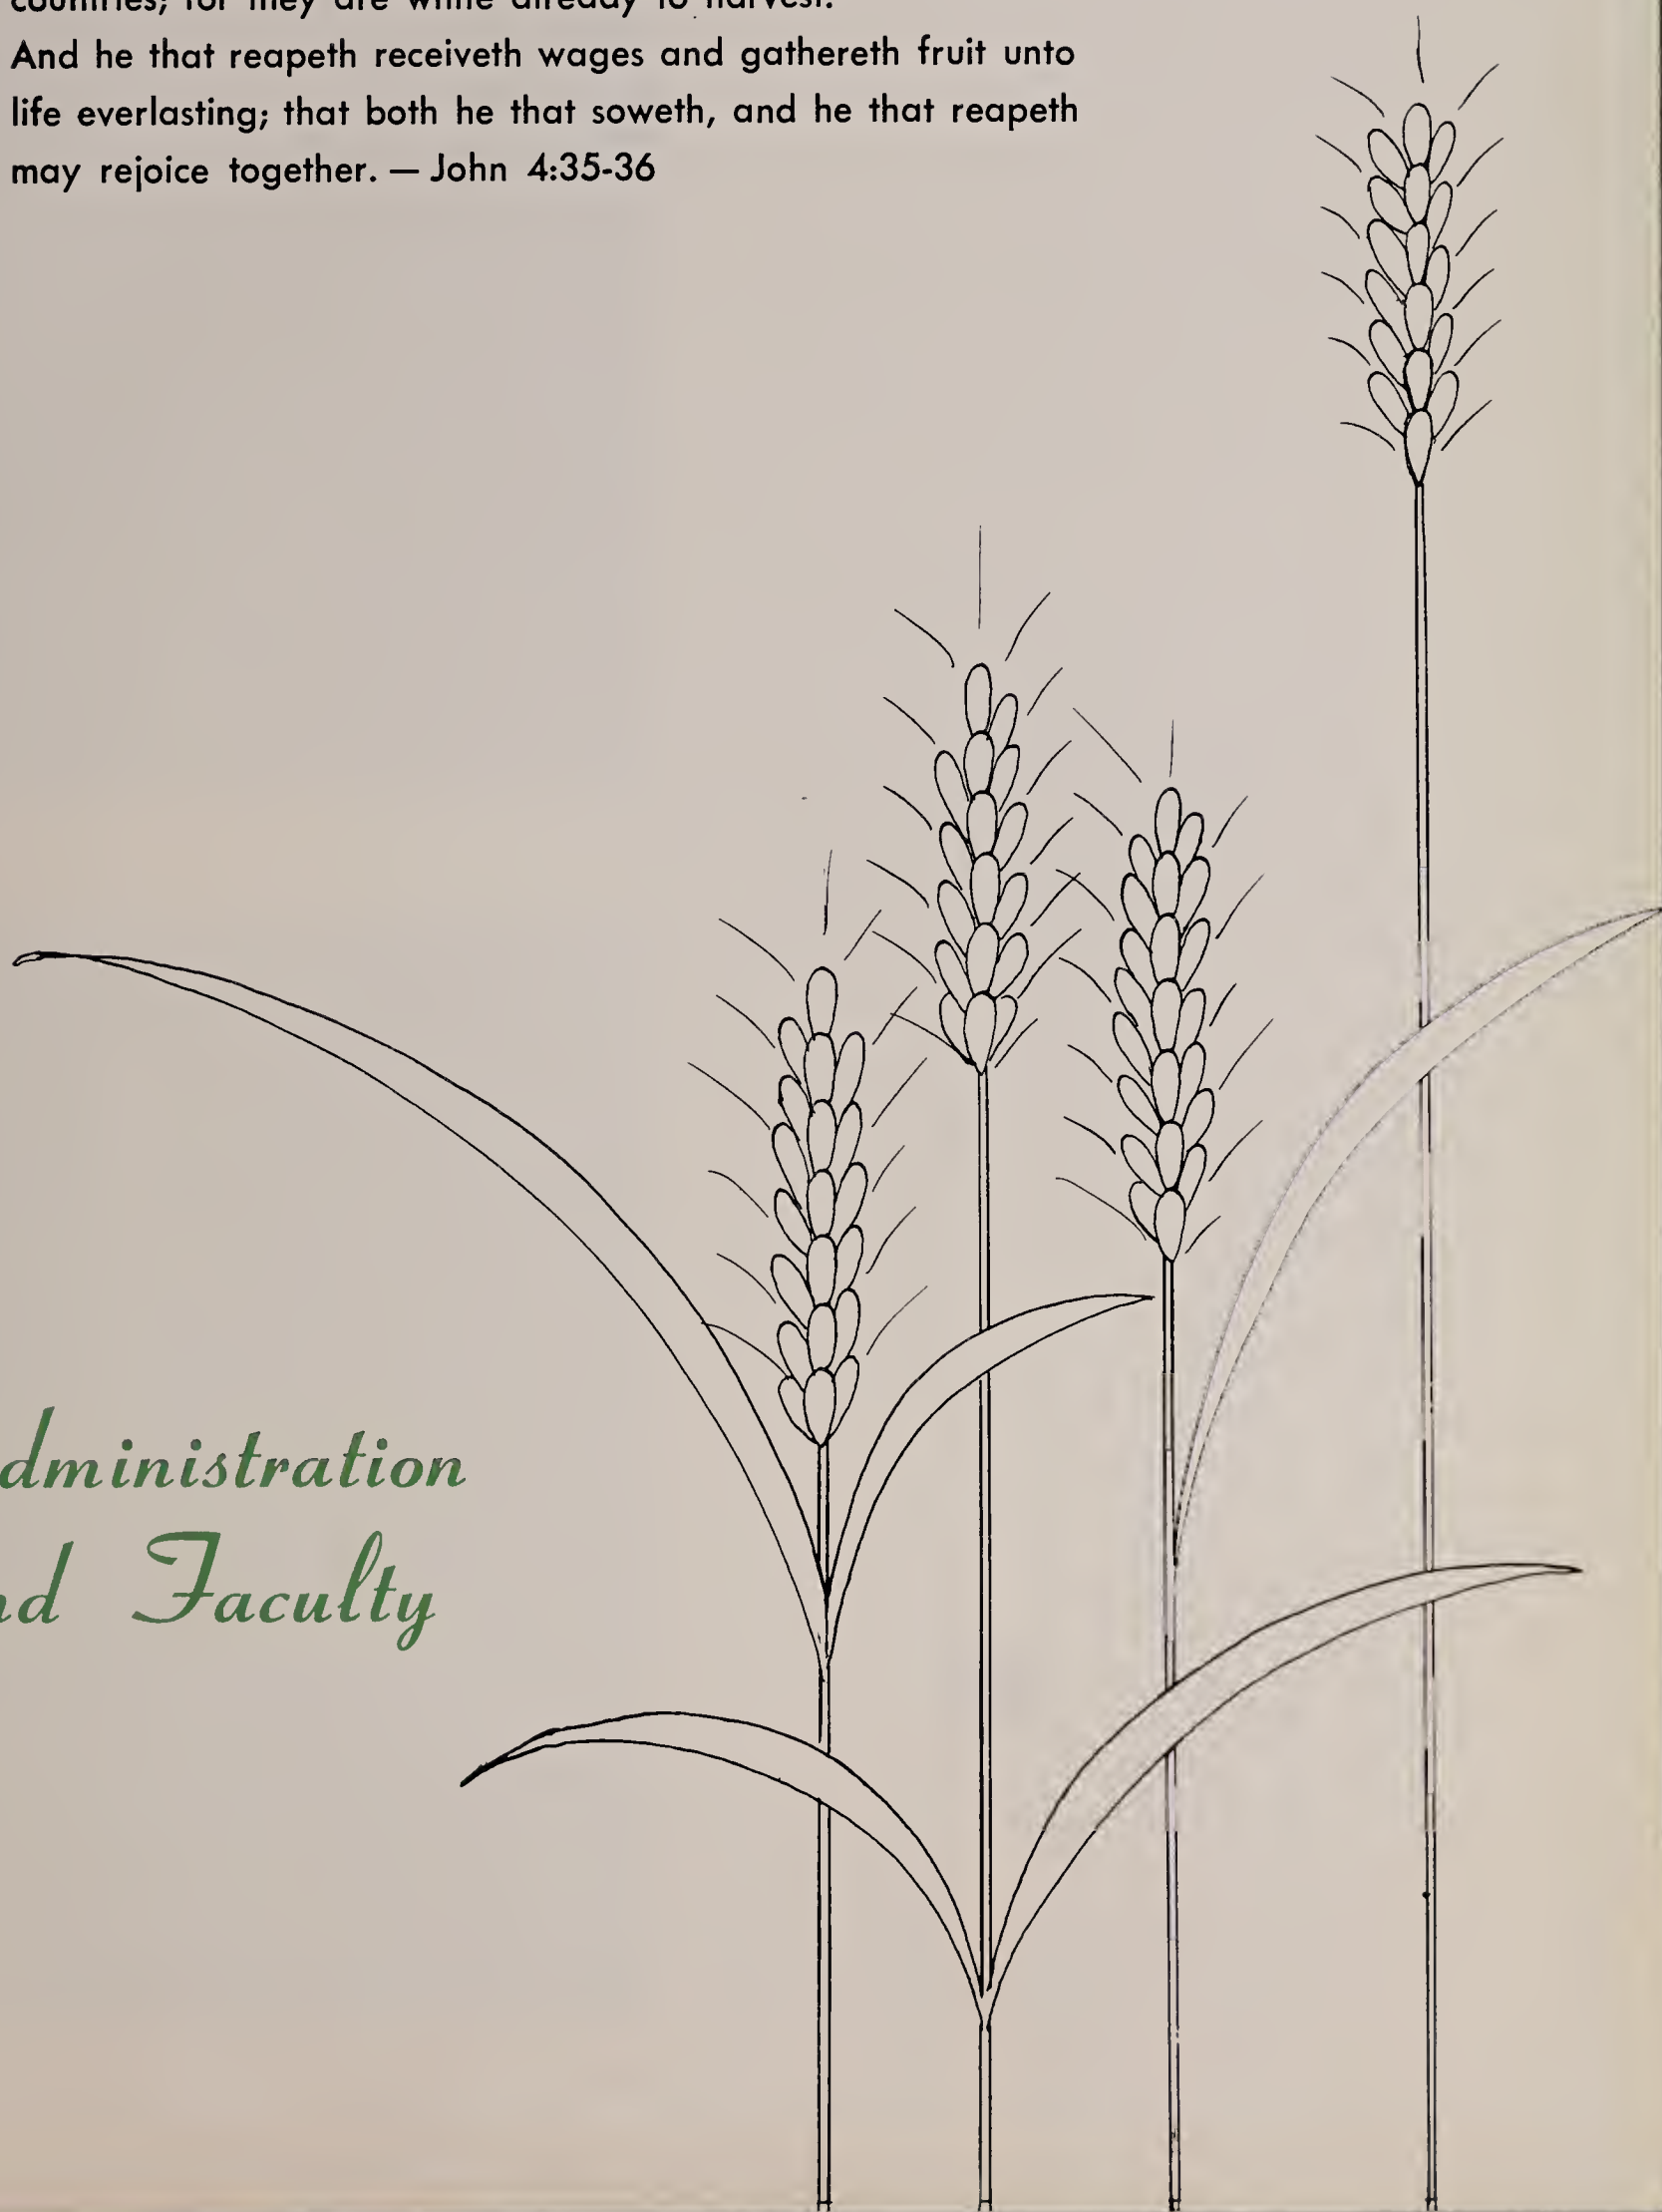

The realization of these promises will then be our bounteous HARVEST!

Do not say, There are yet four months and then the harvest cometh? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes, and see the countries; for they are white already to harvest.

And he that reapeth receiveth wages and gathereth fruit unto life everlasting; that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth may rejoice together. — John 4:35-36

Administration and Faculty

His Holiness,
POPE JOHN XXIII

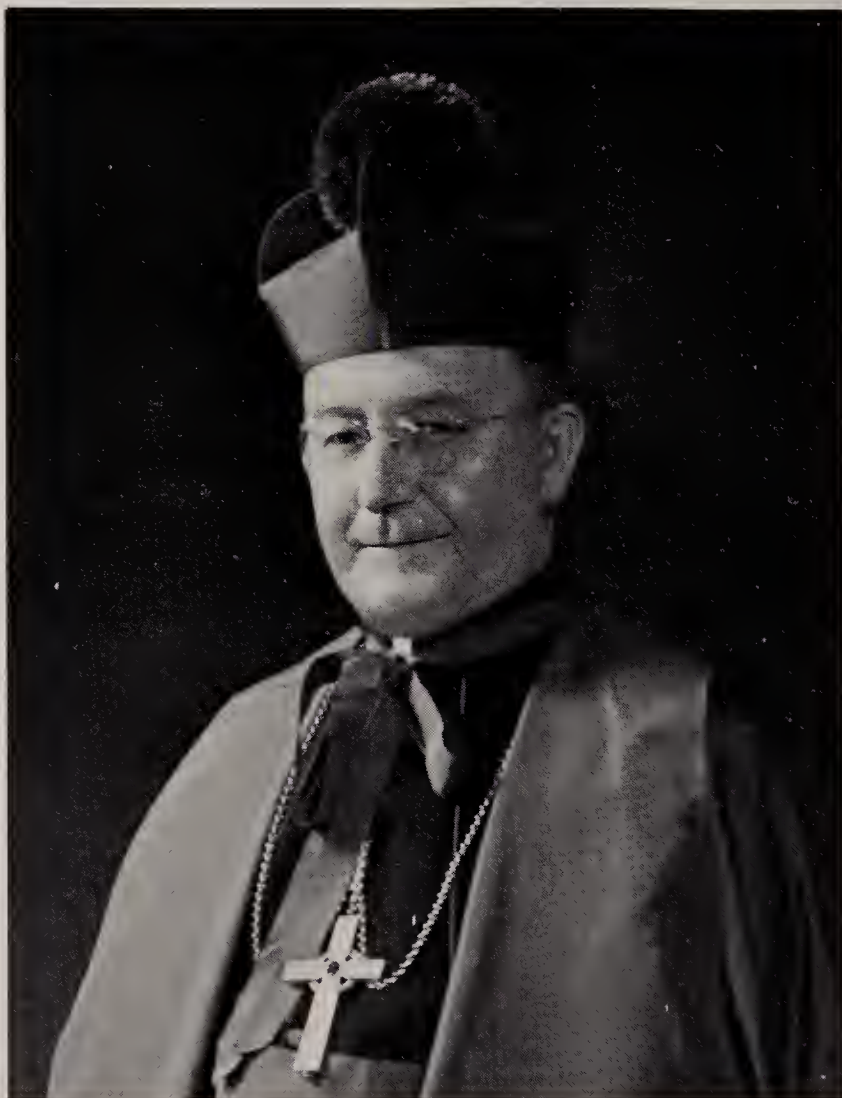

The figure of the teacher . . . rests entirely in the lofty function which makes him an educator of souls by word, example and the patient work he performs with difficulty and sacrifices.

Saint John Chrysostom outlines such an incomparable mission with the profound words

"What is there greater than to direct the soul and mold the habits of adolescents? I deem, without a doubt, more excellent than painters than all sculptors and artists, him who understands well the art of shaping the soul of the youth."

The destinies of societies are entrusted to the work of teachers because they train the men of tomorrow, instilling in their hearts teachings and impressions that will remain dominant throughout life.

Religion

Rejoice in the Lord, you just; praise befits the righteous.

Give thanks to the Lord on the lyre; sing praise to him on the ten-stringed harp. Sing to Him a new canticle, play skillfully to Him amid the shouts of joy.—Ps. 32:1-3

Praise Him with timbrel and dance; . . .

Let everything that has breath praise the Lord.—Ps. 150:4, 5

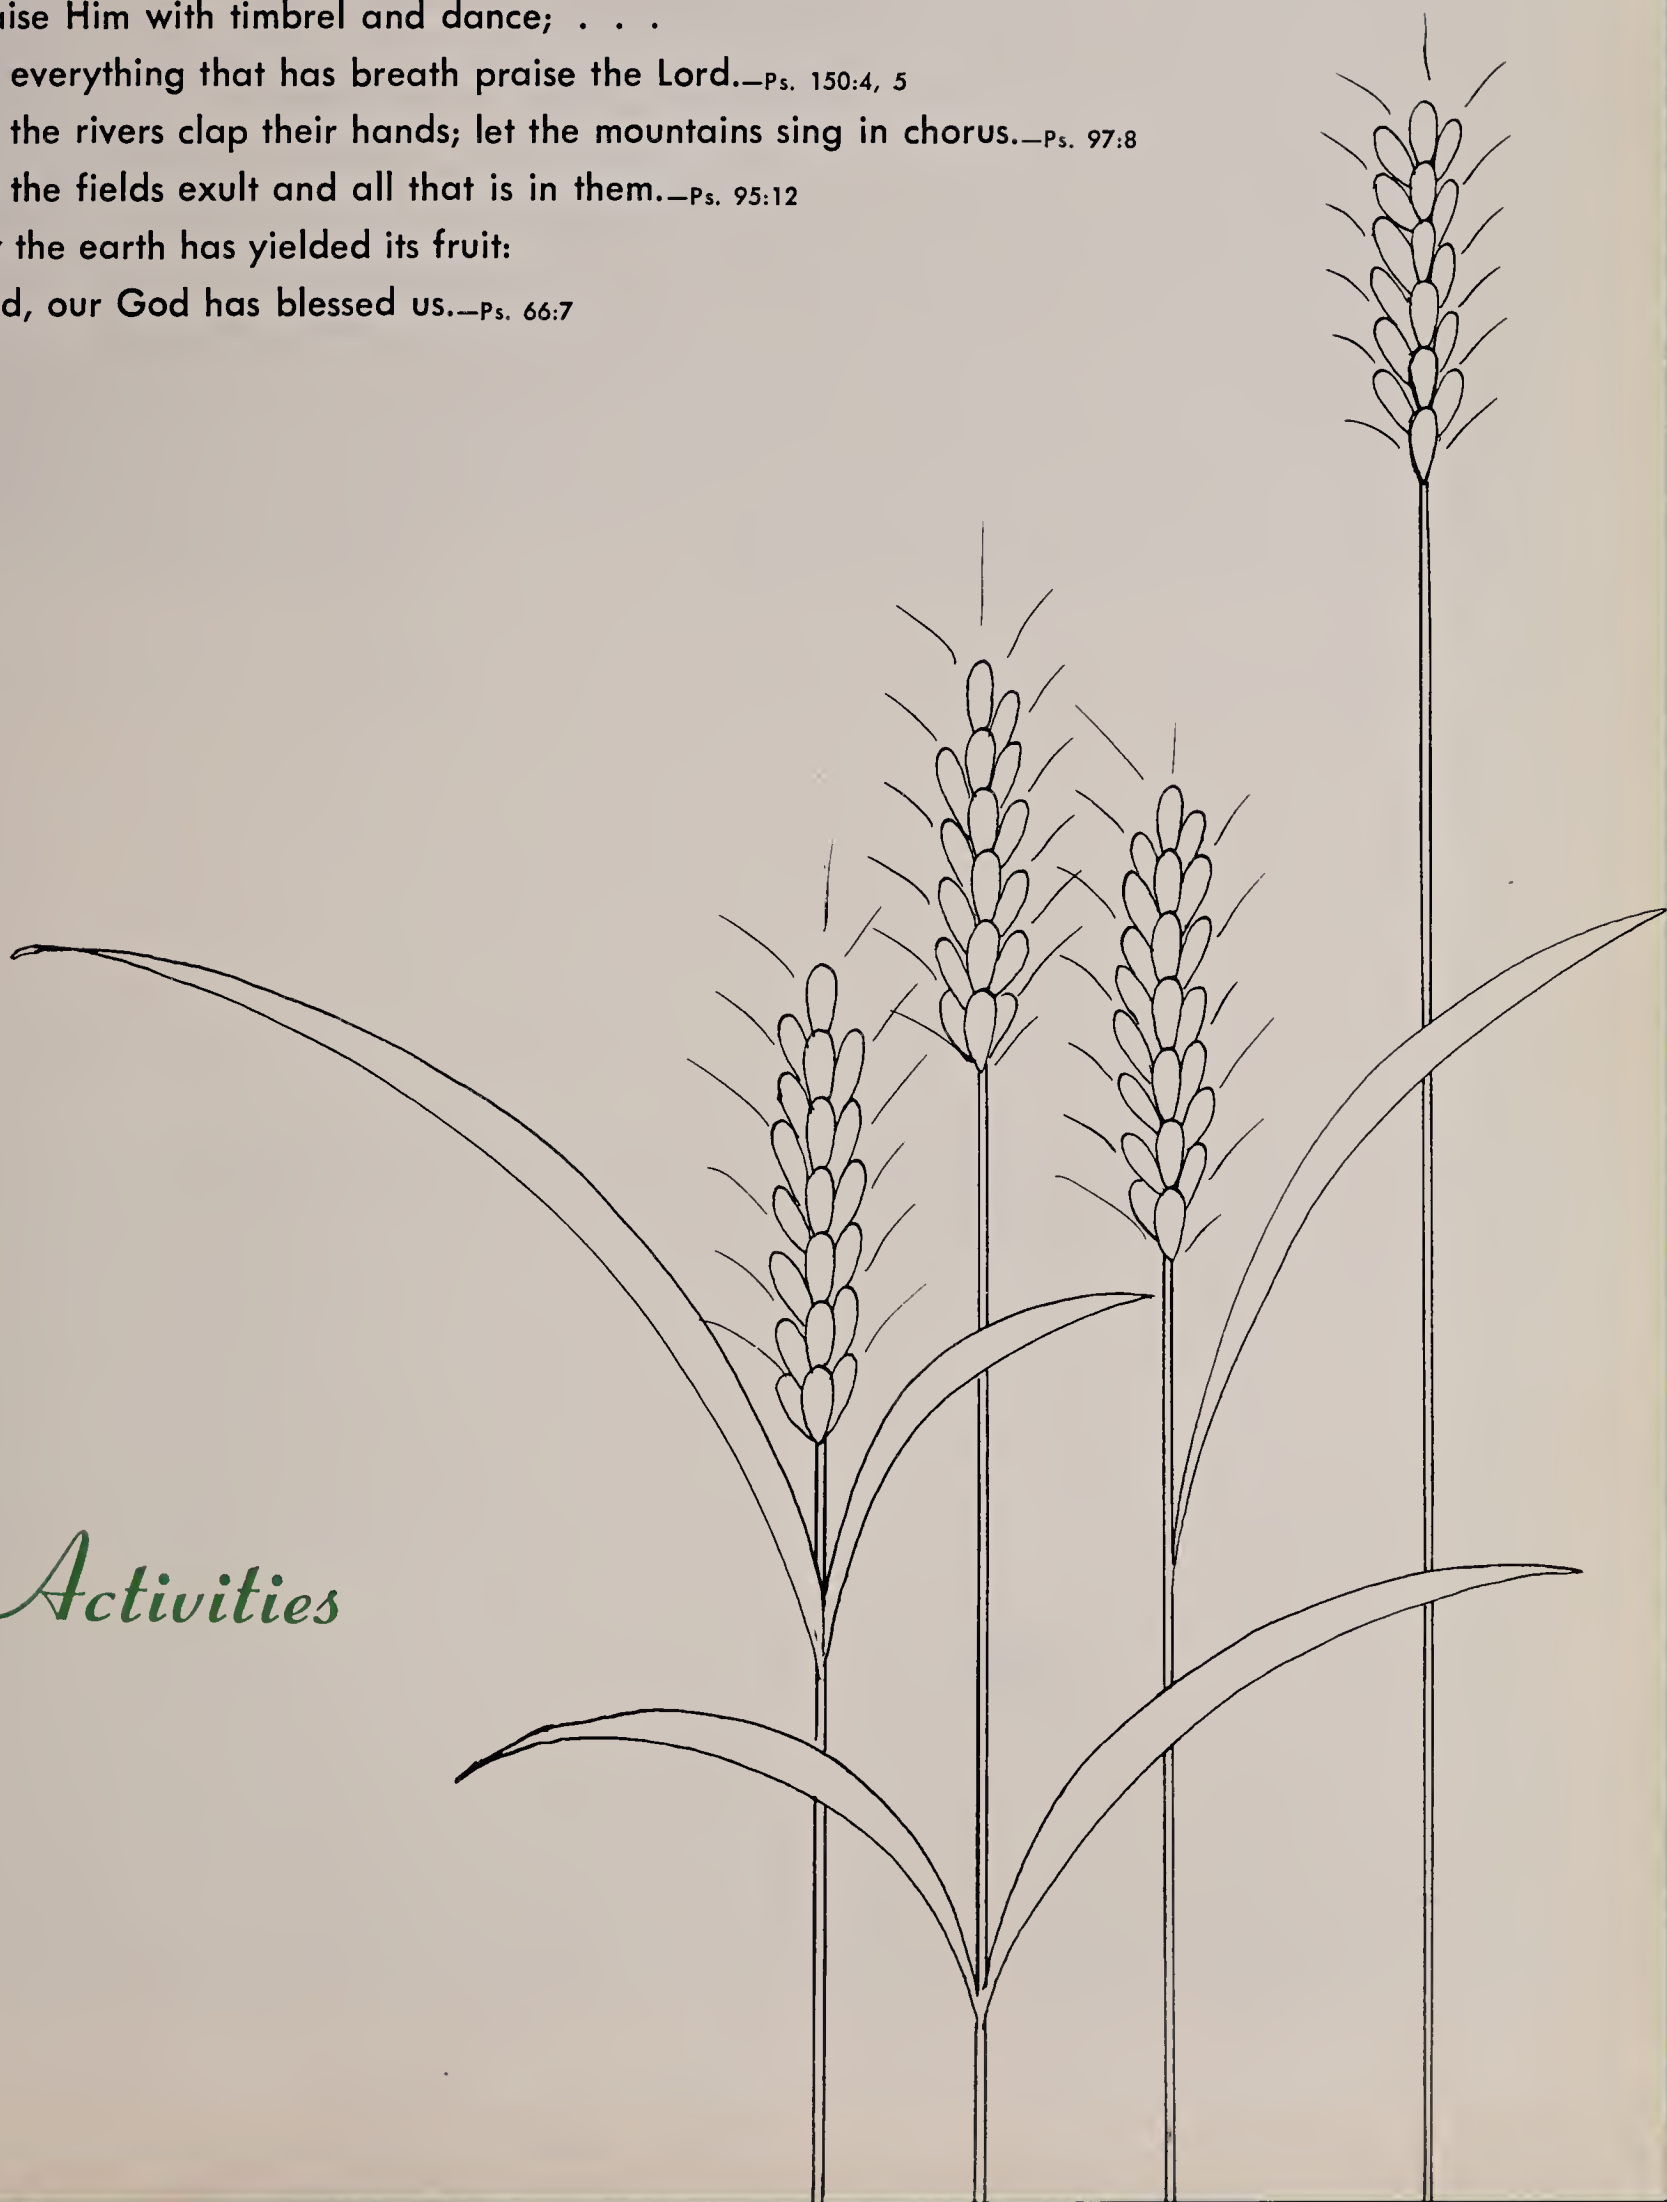

Let the rivers clap their hands; let the mountains sing in chorus.—Ps. 97:8

Let the fields exult and all that is in them.—Ps. 95:12

For the earth has yielded its fruit:

God, our God has blessed us.—Ps. 66:7

Activities

Is this basketball or "Swan Lake"? as Mary Quaglini, Judy Butler, and Evelyn Yedziniak wonder.

BASKETBALL

The girls learn quickly under Mrs. Stroiney's careful instruction.

Patty Paterwic smiles with every shot.

Kathy Stroiney's steady aim is hampered by Judith Hunt.

Our cheerleaders practice up before the big game.

Colleen Fay practices perfect form for her foul shot.

Luba Stobierski prepares to make another score.

It's a hot and bitter battle but good sportsmanship wins again.

Eileen and Dianne select their balls with extreme care.

Careful lining up is Carol's technique.

BOWLING

The senior class of Our Lady of the Angels Academy have formed as of this year a bowling league. The members of the various teams participate in the sport every Tuesday after school at the new Thompsonville Bowling Lanes on Elm Street.

This weekly event enables the students to acquire the skill of bowling, which is America's number one sport, and to release tension by having challenging fun.

From the panorama of scores Barbara Santanella ranked highest, with Ann Pound, Sylvia Skarbek, and Donna Hopkins following close behind.

Dianne takes her turn at the scoreboard.

ANNUAL SCHOOL PLAY

"It's Trina coming up the road; the child will kill herself!" is the concern of Rosita (Anna Lichtanski) and Trina's playmates (Vivian Pierce, Frances Galeotti, Ann O'Brien, and Ann Marie Raper).

Gusman (Sheila Handley) is seized by Dumrigo (Dolores Kiejko) and Escobar (Constance Tomy), yet he remains determined to keep the Indian slaves.

"My gift, dear Lady," is presented by Trina (Irene Gospodarek) while cast looks on.

Choral speaking played an important role in our school play. First row, l. to r.: S. Krochalis, K. Krzyz, R. O'Brien, K. Jaworski, J. Zawistowski; 2nd row: K. Figura, M. Apostolico, E. Paradis, J. Renna, H. Derylak, K. Fritze, B. Malina; 3rd row: P. Piechacki, A. Pound, P. Rarus, N. Pelkey, M. Quagliaroli, J. Kazanowski; 4th row: S. Skarbek, E. Yedziniak, B. Santanella, G. Bugai.

At the end of a perfect day, Father Michael Gryglak, Father Ronan Callahan, Shield Handly, Kathleen Stroiney, Drina Ciarleglio, Susan Preli, Donna DiMaso and their dads pose for a fitting remembrance of the Father-Daughter Tea.

FATHER DAUGHTER TEA

Carol Michaud, Jane Zawistowski and their dads help themselves to the tantalizing buffet dinner.

"Tantum Ergo Sacramentum . . ." Dads and their daughters lift their hearts in prayer at Angelites and their escorts sway in a harvest-time atmosphere, at the first Academy dance.

HARVEST FROLIC

Benediction before the evening's festivities.

"Jack and Jill went up the hill" . . . Mary Jane Piekos and Joan Ciempa masquerade as the famed Nursery Rhyme characters at the Aspirancy Halloween Party.

"M-m-m, delicious . . . The seniors enjoy hot dogs and soft drinks to their hearts' content on the Graham lawn.

"Let's do the fly!" Sophomores try out a new dance step, at the luncheon get-together.

There's nothing like a warm spring day to lunch out on the campus with a few close friends!

"Delightfully delicious" . . . Sister Mary Laurette, Sister Mary Magdalen, Ann Marie Raper and Rosemarie Dellaquila admire the World's Finest Christmas Arrangement Entries.

"Venite Adoremus" . . . Frances Kruzel, Irene Gospodarek, Theresa Ruthowski, and Rose Ann Martino kneel at the crib with gifts of love.

"Merry Christmas, Sister" . . . Janet Lucas, Barbara Santanella, and Ann Pound exchange gifts and wishes of the Yuletide Season with our principal.

"This is from my little Sister" . . . The Academy is one big family, especially at Christmas time.

"No admittance!" Nancy Kuzara and Eileen Ingraham rehearse behind closed doors for their Christmas skit.

"Twas the night before Christmas" . . . Carol Pozniak tells the famed tale to her little orphan friends in the Sophomore Christmas Play.

The traditional Red Mass again finds Angelites seeking enlightenment from the Holy Spirit.

A group of intent seniors show their approval of an inspirational and entertaining Third Order Assembly.

A noonday pause in chapel refreshes Third Order Angelites: Rita Dowdy, Diane Wyszomirski and Anne Lichtanski.

A SPIRITUAL

Father Christian, O.F.M., Chaplain, and Luba Stobierski, prefect of the Third Order, discuss the fruits of a recent Third Order assembly.

Christine Cichy, Ann Lichtanski, and Sandra Kusiak welcome Father Richard, O.F.M., Cap.

HARVESTING

Retreat days (April 4, 5, & 6) diffuse countless graces to Angelites. Father Hilary Sweeney inspires many during an afternoon conference.

Chats with Mary and the Infant of Prague give Regina Lukasik, Francis Kruzel, and Theresa Rutkowska a deeper appreciation of their faith.

Mary Ann Jurgielewicz, Pauline Piechocki, and Theresa Rutkowska meditate on the happy death of Saint Joseph.

Stasia Hodyl, Barbara Ziminski, and Jacqueline Kazanowski find solace in the Passion of Christ.

Confession, the powerful cleansing agent, enhances the spiritual beauty of these Angelites as each departs resplendent in grace.

RING DAY CEREMONY

Father Anthony Jurgielewicz talks to the juniors on fidelity to their vocation in life.

Ring Day crowns the year for the juniors when they receive their rings, symbols of honor and trust.

Juniors listen attentively as Father Anthony encourages trust in the Blessed Mother.

Judy Branchaud beams with pride as she displays her ring to her equally proud parents.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER TEA

A decorative bulletin board provides an inspirational setting as Mary Ann, Sally and Kathy discuss their Religion assignment.

Typists Gloria, Geraldine, Evelyn and Judith combine forces to carry our "Angelite" to eager readers.

Accuracy is their objective, as the Bookkeeping Class diligently record their Profit and Loss Statements.

"Doesn't the graph pass through the origin?" Jane Zawistowski, Susan Preli, and Linda Carrigan come to a logical conclusion in a Math III problem.

JUNIORS AT WORK

Karen Fritze, Nancy Kearny and Carolyn Jaskolka are looking for a quiet place in which to practice short-hand transcriptions.

"L'automobile, of course . . . " Mixed or matched, the words on this French bulletin are well known by this group of French II students.

"I hope it meets Sister's approval!" English III students prepare their masterpieces for the monthly "trip" to the office.

"It's worth every bit we paid for it!" Alerting themselves on current events, a few American History students anxiously peruse the New York Times.

"From War to Peace" . . . Latin III students enjoy Cicero, the man of letters, after a year with Caesar, the man of war.

SOPHOMORES IN ACTION

Ann O'Brien, Jane Chikosky, Ann Brown and Claire Korzeniewski delve into the Bible for a further study of the life of Christ.

The keys click away as six avid Sophomore typists begin the day's assignment in the Typing I class.

"Do you think we'll ever figure this one out?" The Geometry class match their wits over a new theorem.

Research and more research . . . English II students are frequent callers on the library's books of knowledge.

"I never thought that there was so much involved!" Visual aids very aptly acquaint the Biology students with the spermatophytes.

"Latin is a dead language!" By no means agree the Latin I students when it comes to translating the "Auxilium Latinum" magazine.

"This must be the cambium layer!" decide C. Pozniak and T. Muraski.

FRESHMEN CONTRIBUTE

"Is this limestone?" Freshmen Earth Science students search very inquisitively for the answer.

"Sister, is this feast movable?" An explanation of the liturgical sequences is given by Sister Rosalie to four very interested Religion I students.

"If I could have only been there!" The Hanging Gardens of Babylon interest the World History students to the point of discussion.

English I students are all smiles as they prepare their folders for Sister Laurette's perusal.

"Declensions are easy when you know the morphemes. Latin I students demonstrate their triumph over a one-time trying task.

With all the zeal of Freshmen, Algebra I students probe into the mysteries and operations of mathematics.

To you we owe our hymn of praise, O God in Sion, . . .
You have visited the land and watered it;
greatly have you enriched it.
God's watercourses are filled; you have prepared the grain.
Thus have you prepared the land:
Drenching its furrows, breaking up its clods,
Softening it with showers, blessing its yield.
You have crowned the year with your bounty,
and your paths overflow with a rich harvest;
The untilled meadows overflow with it,
and rejoicing clothes the hills.
The fields are garmented with flocks and the valley blanketed with grain. They shout and sing for joy.—Ps. 64

Seniors

"Practice makes perfect." Office Practice students experience a bit of the work ahead, as they index books at the library.

"Our Life, our Sweetness, and our Hope" . . . Religion IV students venture into books to acquaint themselves with Our Lady's titles.

"Mission accomplished!" Ann Pound, Barbara Zieminski, and Colette Poirier seemingly feel a bit victorious, after completing their Math IV problem.

Seniors at Work . . .

"I can't wait to read this story!" The Atlantic Monthly gets a welcoming perusal by a few English IV intellectuals.

The secretaries of tomorrow transcribe their shorthand notes for a very tangible grade as students of today.

in class

"Parlez-vous francais? Mais, oui . . . " French II students adventure into their new French readers . . . "Un Peu de Tout."

Business Law Class becomes active as R. Martino, P. Coolen, S. Pendleton, E. Quinn watch M. Quaglini skillfully accuse C. Polek of the alleged crime. J. Lucas waits eagerly to impose sentence.

Speed, as well as accuracy, makes the difference to the Senior Business students, as they practice their shorthand forms.

and lab

"Heat it gently, Donna." Senior Chemistry students work hand in hand as they prepare oxygen for their experiments.

"My, but it's easy to do research work now!" Library Science students set their knowledge to practice.

"O, l'Amerique . . ." chorus Sister Mary Evelyn and the French Circle. Could the study of French be any more enjoyable?

And she meets the Governor . . . Governor Dempsey is all smiles as he presents a Certificate of Merit to Carol Markoski for her prize-winning essay on "Hire the Handicapped".

Reverend John G. Ring, our revered teacher of the Religion IV Marriage Course.

"Everything's ready, so let's go on with the baptism," says Reverend Michael Gryglak, Chaplain of O.L.A. Margaret Williams holds the infant for the demonstration.

Just getting ready for a test—Carol Smith, Kathryn Gabriel, Barbara Di Maria, Virginia Tyler, Donna Hopkins, and Judith Butler exchange last minute tips.

"Mexico, treasure house of the world." Mr. Walter Halpin attunes voices for the school play choral group.

"Lovely, aren't they?" Admiring the trophy case are Kathryn Gabriel, Mary Quaglini, Judith Butler, and Margaret Williams.

Three busy beavers have everything under control—Judith Balsewicz, Carol Smith, and Marie Apostolico during Office Practice.

Congratulations girls! Sister Mary Laurette chats with Carol Markoski, Irene Gospodarek, and Elaine Paradis, the three local winners of "Hire the Handicapped" Essay Contest.

"I light the candle of service". The officers of the National Honor Society, Carol Markoski, Luba Stobierski, Elizabeth Shanahan, and Susan Preli, climax the annual induction ceremony.

"It's right here in the book," says Barbara DiMaria to Kathryn Gabriel, who appears to be a bit skeptical.

"Au claire de la lune." The French II class is carried away on wings of song.

Henry W. Flood of the Hamilton Watch Co. explains the "Parade of Time" as Kathleen Mullen, Barbara Zieminski, Stasia Hodyl, and Virginia Tyler listen attentively.

Joyce Jarosz
Talk on symbolism
of Daisy Chain

Rev. John Ring presents a C. U. Diploma to Theresa Rutkowski.

Seniors present the traditional Daisy Chain to their successors, the Junior Class . . .

"A symbol we pass on to you,
A symbol of that which we have done and you must ever do,
A symbol of Academy life and all its meaning, too,
A symbol of our heritage, our traditions, our memories, tried and true."

Alumnae lead the graduation processional into the chapel of our Lady of the Angels.

GRADUATION - A HARVEST FESTIVAL

O God, our Savior, . . .

You have crowned the year with your bounty, and your paths overflow with a rich HARVEST. —Psalm 64:12

Joy fills each heart to capacity.

Grateful hearts unite with Christ in the Sacrifice of the Altar.

Father Joseph A. Cushing presents Joyce Jarosz her diploma, while Fathers Gryglak and ^{Baczowski} Gospodarek look on.

Members of the Class of 1962 recite their last Hail Mary together before bidding farewell to O.L.A.

A sepia-toned photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, a stone balustrade with decorative pillars is visible. Beyond it, a body of water, possibly a lake or river, stretches across the middle ground. The background is filled with dense, leafy trees. The overall tone is peaceful and naturalistic.

*The earth has yielded its fruits;
God, our God has blessed us.*

Psalm 66: 7
